Apple Squash Soup

Serves: 10

Ingredients

- 1 tablespoon safflower or canola oil
- 1 1/2 cups thinly sliced leeks (white and light green parts) or coarsely chopped onions
- 4 cups boiling water
- 3 pounds butternut squash, seeded and cut in 1 1/2 inch chunks
- 3 Granny Smith apples, peeled cored and quartered
- 1/3 cup uncooked old-fashioned oatmeal
- 2 tablespoons finely minced fresh ginger
- 1 1/2 tablespoons mild curry powder
- 1 teaspoon salt

Instructions

1. Heat the oil in the pressure cooker. Cook the leeks over medium-high heat, stirring frequently, for 1 minute.
2. Add the water (stand back to avoid sputtering oil), squash, apples, oatmeal, ginger, curry powder and salt. Lock the lid in place.

Slow Cooker Corn Chowder

Corn chowder is a great late summer, early fall soup when corn is at its peak season. This recipe uses canned corn, but try going for the stuff straight off the cob for a fresh variation. This recipe would also be great with the addition of a protein like crab meat or chicken.

Serves: 9

Ingredients

- 3 bacon slices, diced
- 1/2 cup onion, minced
- 1/2 cup celery, minced
- 2 cups water
- 3 teaspoons chicken bouillon
- 2 cups potatoes, minced
- 2 cups milk or soy/rice milk
- 2 cups liquid non-dairy creamer, mocha flavor, cream, milk or soy/rice milk
- 3 cans corn, cream style
- 2 tablespoons margarine

Instructions

1. Fry diced bacon until crisp, remove from pan. Add minced onion and celery to bacon grease and sauté until limp.
2. Combine above in slow cooker with water, bouillon, potatoes, margarine and corn.
3. Cover and cook on low 7 to 9 hours.

4. Add milk and cream, cook 30 minutes more or until heated through.

Note: You can use chicken stock to replace water and bouillon cubes. Mocha mix makes this soup extremely rich tasting, and the Mocha mix does not curdle with high heat like regular milk or cream. This can also be made on the stovetop. Instead of placing in slow cooker, simmer on the stove until potatoes are tender. Add the milk, cream, or liquid non-dairy creamer and heat through. Serve immediately.
